

EUROPEAN UNION AGENCY
FOR CYBERSECURITY

BUILDING A CYBERSECURITY WORKFORCE- CYBER CHALLENGES

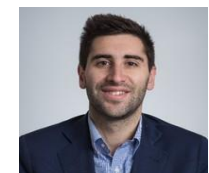

Athanasios Grammatopoulos

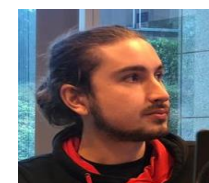

CYBER CHALLENGES

Athanasios GRAMMATOPOULOS, (moderator), ENISA

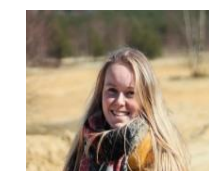

Tommaso DE ZAN, Senior Consultant, ICF Consulting Services

Lucas PHILIPPE, Tech ambassador, YesWeHack

Alexia KONSTANTINIDI, Incident Response Consultant, IBM & Player in Team Europe

Danique LUMMEN, Graduate Intern, High Tech Crime Unit of the Dutch Police & Captain in Team Europe

EUROPEAN CYBER SECURITY CHALLENGES

33 teams vs 39 challenges vs 7 services

CTF event that aims to find new and young cyber talents and encourage young people to pursue a career in cyber security.

*stats from 2022

EUROPEAN CYBER SECURITY CHALLENGES

Day 1 - Jeopardy style competition.

Challenges from various categories.

Day 2 – Attack Defence style competition.

Cyber war! Exploit and defend!

INTERNATIONAL CYBER SECURITY CHALLENGES

7 regional teams

ENISA, together with other regional and international organisations, decided to design and host for the first time the International Cybersecurity Challenge (ICC).

The aim of the challenge is to attract young talent and raise awareness in the community, globally, on the education and skills needed in the area of cybersecurity.

INTERNATIONAL CYBER SECURITY CHALLENGES

Team Europe:

15 young talents from 12 different European Union and EFTA countries

Ages between 21 and 27 years old.

Participating Teams

Africa

Asia

Canada

Europe

Latin America

Oceania

United States

INTERNATIONAL CYBER SECURITY CHALLENGES

Day 1 - Jeopardy style competition.

Challenges from various categories.

Day 2 – Attack Defence style competition.

Cyber war! Exploit and defend!

HACKFEST 2021

263
participants

vs

24
challenges

CTF event for cybersecurity professionals and students to connect and train the teams participating in the 2021 ECSC.

Jeopardy style. Online.