

Virtual Worlds are online spaces where children meet new people. Have children use nicknames, not their real names; you never know who is on the other side.